

Michael Sawdon

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT
CORPORATE SERVICES

Michael Sawdon joined DAUM in 2008 as an Associate Vice President in DAUM's Newport Beach office. Prior to DAUM, Michael was a Senior Associate with Lee & Associates Commercial Real Estate Services, National Accounts Group in Carlsbad, California. The National Accounts Group specialized in strategic representation to end-users of commercial real estate buyers and sellers of investment properties.

Prior to joining Lee & Associates, Michael was a Senior Associate with the National Accounts Services at Resource Commercial Real Estate, Inc. (RCRE) headquartered in Irvine, California.

Michael has more than 25 years of real estate experience both as a broker and licensed sales associate in Colorado and California. He has held corporate executive positions managing real estate services requirements involving lease negotiations, site selection and disposition for retail banking locations and corporate office relocations and expansion.

Michael has also held senior executive positions with a national real estate outsourcing company based in Southern California, specializing in commercial and residential asset management and valuations outsourcing in all 50 states and Puerto Rico. His responsibilities included developing corporate strategic initiatives and managing national and regional client relationships. Additionally, he held management positions with a highly successful land development and home building company in Denver, Colorado.

Michael has been on both sides of the table in real estate negotiations, and understands how a client's needs and requirements must be represented.

Michael and his wife Paula have lived with their two sons in Orange County California for over 20 years.
